- Understand charter law as it pertains to charter applications and appeals.

- Utilize and complete the Standard Model Charter School Application Evaluation Instrument when reviewing your designated section(s) of each charter application.

- Participate in team meetings.

- Submit recommendations to approve or deny on each charter application.
Charter Review Training

Talking points to guide your training:

1) Review the charter application review timeline of events, deadlines and commitment.

2) Discuss charter law: Section 6 – Charter Application Process and Review.

3) Look at the Standard Model Florida Charter School Application and where to locate it.

4) Go over the Standard Model Charter School Evaluation Instrument and the rubric and where to locate it.

5) Instruct them on where or whom to submit their evaluations to.
Resolving Your Challenges

- Develop an application review timeline, that includes a schedule of events and share it with your team.
- Send meeting invitations as necessary and as early as possible.
- Train your Charter Review Team to understand their roles and responsibilities.
- Develop a meeting agenda to guide your group meetings that lead to a recommendation of approval or denial.
- Suggest a strong designee to fill in if your primary Charter Review Team person is not able to represent their department.
- Consider an external reviewer.
